Evaluation:
"One Sign at a Time," was a hard, but fun project. We didn't have any mishaps, but working with everyone's schedules was hard, we made it work though. We needed to have more filming days for retakes. The students and community members of Corsicana were overwhelming supported and enjoyed the video. Our favorite part of the project was able to spend time together, and form bonds with deaf and hearing people alike. Being a part of FCCLA is also our favorite part of the project, because we wouldn't have as big of platform without them.

ACT

We started with forming a plan and then brought it to our FCCLA Advisors about bring deaf awareness to the school district and community of Corsicana. We then made a script, which included various scenes and FCCLA project opportunities with student and community participants. We made a filming schedule and got a cast together. We started to film in October and ended in early January. We finally started to edit, clean, and make the video a reality in January. We showed various members of Corsicana ISD and the ASL Community Classes, and got overwhelming support. Finally, we uploaded it to YouTube.

FOLLOW UP

This project has generated interest from student and community of Corsicana to learn how to sign. The high school's ASL Club and Community ASL Classes have gotten new members since our project idea was spread at the Christmas Parade, and the video was seen by various members and students of Corsicana.
