Superintendent's Report:

The Corsicana High School music department presented South Pacific this weekend. We have so many very talented students. Football team is still in playoffs. They will play again Friday at Mesquite Memorial Stadium at 7:30 p.m. Boys' baseball team has been busy getting bags of food ready for Arms of Hope and will do this again for Christmas. The Board of Trustees and City Council had a joint meeting today and brought toys for the Stuff the Bus project.

Ms. Donica, president of Board of Trustees certified that all Board members have met and exceeded training requirements for the year.

Dr. Frost presented the first reading of TASB Update 91 and Update 92.

On a motion by Mr. Saberton and seconded by Mrs. Kelley, the Board voted to approve the maximum class size waiver. The motion passed unanimously.

Dr. Joe Young presented the Highly Qualified Report.

On a motion by Mrs. Blackard and seconded by Mr. Saberton, the Board voted to approve the new course offerings of Sports Medicine, Advanced Quantitative Reasoning, Robotics and Automation, and Earth and Space Science for Corsicana High School. The motion passed unanimously.
