

Swat That Wasp!

Buzz, Buzz! A big, red wasp zoomed into Ben's room. "MOM!", he yelled as he lifted his hand to swat the wasp. Ben's mom came into the room and said, "Ben, you must not swat the bug with your hand. Watch it; do not let it get on you. I will go get your dad."

As Ben's dad ran in the room, Ben yelled. A strong wind wafted the wasp from its spot to Ben's leg. That wasp stung him! Ben's dad killed the wasp, then peeked at Ben. The wan look on Ben's face sent his dad to get a cloth. He swashed the cloth in the sink to make it cool. He said, "Ben, I want to swab the sting with this cloth. If I do not, it will swell."

Ben's dad watched Ben to be sure he felt well. As soon as Ben was feeling fine, his dad got a wad of rags to wash the wasp off the rug. Then, Ben, his mom, and his dad wanted to see how the wasp got in the room. They could see a hole in the screen. "That is how the wasp got in this room," Ben said. "I want to swap this screen for one that has no hole." His mom and dad said they would get Ben a screen, so no more wasps needed to be washed off the rug!
